DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to Applicant's Request for Continued Examination filed on December 2, 2002. Claims 46-55 are presented for further consideration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 46-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McLemore ("how do I alias a server and make it look like a dedicated server", December 9, 1994).

In considering claim 46, McLemore discloses a computer executing a Web server program, comprising:

A plurality of virtual hosts accessible using connection requests passed over a computer network (p. 2, lines 39-43), each of the virtual hosts being identified by a corresponding virtual host identifier ("address") includable in a connection request (p. 2, lines 50-53);

A plurality of executable modules ("instances of the server"), each of the modules defining a predetermined function (p. 2, lines 50-53); and

Unit: 2153

A plurality of configuration sub-files corresponding to the virtual hosts, each of the configuration sub-files defining which of the executable module functions are usable by a corresponding one of the virtual hosts (p. 2, lines 53-56; pages 4-11).

In considering claim 47, McLemore further discloses that the configuration sub-files are included in a master configuration file (p. 4-11).

In considering claim 48, McLemore further discloses a plurality of log files corresponding to the virtual hosts (p. 2, lines 55-57).

In considering claim 49, McLemore further discloses means for creating a log entry identifying at least one of the virtual hosts accessed by a connection request (p. 4, lines 7-10).

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 50-55 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art of record fails to disclose or render obvious each and every limitation of the claimed invention.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
